AN ATROCITY IN CHINA

USED AS A LEADER FOR A FEW
MILDER HOME CRIMES.

Nearly 300 Tramps Invaded into a Building and Hosted—The Wretched of New Jersey. Miscellaneous—The Wretched of New Jersey. Miscellaneous—The Wretched of New Jersey.

San Francisco, March 22.—The stormer Belgic, from China and Japan, which arrived Thursday, brings information of the committing of nearly 300 tramps at Hsia Shih, China. A band of about 300 tramps had just made their appearance at the town and the inhabitants invaded the entire band into a large building and set fire to it. All but forty perished.

A YOUTHFUL ASSASSIN.

No Ties to Kill a Playmate and Wounds Two Other Boys.

Chicago, March 23.—Michael Schyn and two other boys about 14 years of age were playing Wednesday evening in front of Schyn's house in the village of Auburn, just south of Englewood. The boys became involved in a quarrel in which words were followed by blows. Young Schyn, who was getting a little of the worst of the pummeling, ran into his father's shop. The other boys charged to run, but only one got away. When Schyn fired at short range. The charge passed over their heads, but went crashing into a window of a house on the other side of the street and struck two boys, George Pash and George McGinnis, who were playing in the front yard. The boys, who were about 15 years of age, fell to the floor, groaning and yelling for help.

A cursory examination showed that the boys were not seriously hurt, although a number of ribs had been broken. The father, Michael Schyn, a well-known resident of the village, was frightened by the screams of his victims, was running away with the gun over his shoulder. He was soon overtaken, and brought before Justice McLaughlin, who charged, charged with assault with intent to commit murder. The case was continued to March 30 without bail.

FIVE NEW JERSEY BRUTES

Who Would Stretch Community with Advantage to the Community.

New York, March 23.—Grant, a small village on the Northern railroad of New Jersey, about three miles from Jersey City, is in a frenzy of excitement over the trial of five young men charged with the brutal slaying of a girl. The girl had been sent on an errand, and was waylaid in a grove through which she was passing. A young lady who surprised and identified four of the party, carried the child to her home, where it was found that she had been so terribly treated that she had lost consciousness. The four men, recognized were James McGowan, Albert Smith, Robert Montgomery and Andrew Brown. When the story of the outrage got around there was great excitement, and lynching parties were formed, but as yet no trace of the brutes has been found. It is thought the girl is in a precarious condition, and it is doubtful if she will recover.

A Coward's Murderous Shot.

Yonkers, N. Y., March 23.—Thursday evening in Yonkers, a suburb of this city, as Miss Mary Hancock, aged 17, was walking with Walter Knox, aged 21, she was shot by Ebenezer Stannard, aged 25, her next-door neighbor, whom she had refused to accept as a lover. As the young lady and Knox were passing Stannard's gate, at which he stood, he fired six shots, the second or third shot taking effect, entering her head in the back above the right ear and passing through the brain. A bullet from Knox's head, the powder burning his face, and one ball cut a finger. The girl was taken to her father's house, where she died in a few moments. Stannard is said to be slightly crazy. He has not yet been arrested. He was arrested a few days ago for shooting within the city limits, but was fined and discharged.

The Celebrated Caswell Divorce Case.

Marysville, Ill., March 23.—A dispatch from Ottawa announces that the supreme court has affirmed the decision of the circuit court here in the celebrated Caswell divorce case. Daniel H. Caswell began suit against his wife, Mary Ann Caswell, in 1892, in the circuit court, claiming that she was insane. She was in Ohio, being in entire ignorance of the proceedings. He secured a divorce by default, but a little over a month before the decree was granted he married Miss Louise Decew with wife No. 2 for seventeen years, the first wife brought suit here to have the fraudulent divorce set aside. The supreme court, in sustaining the decision of the lower court, makes the six children of Caswell and Miss Decew illegitimate. The father will now be prosecuted for bigamy and perjury.

Accused of Killing His Father.

New York, March 23.—Peter Smith, who is to be hanged in the Tombs prison yard on May 6 for the murder of John Hannan, is accused of being guilty of crime a woman named, the killing of his father a year before he shot Hannan. The police have been trying for weeks, without success, to solve the mystery. Smith's father was found dead on morning in the stable where he kept his horses with a bullet hole in his head. It was believed at the time that the son killed him, but it is now thought that the son killed him for the purpose of obtaining a few thousand dollars which the old man had saved. Smith and his father were always quarreling, which adds color to the belief now entertained with regard to the latter's death.

Pitiable Sight by the River.

MADISON, Ind., March 23.—Tuesday night the cry of a woman in distress was heard from the willows along the river shore, opposite this city. Some persons who were passing in the direction of the sound and came upon a scene of terrible misery. On the ground near the river bank was a woman with three poorly clad children huddled together for trying to keep warm. There were two other children who had just come into the world. The husband and father had brought the family down the Kanawha river in a skiff, and leaving them on the Kentucky shore, he had returned to the city, leaving the family to starve. The unfortunate were brought to this city and cared for.

A Jury in the Haddock Case.

Shoan City, Iowa, March 23.—At 10 o'clock Thursday morning the work of impeaching a jury in the Haddock case was continued, and at 10:30 the panel was full, the state having exhausted its peremptories, while the defense had yet four challenges unexercised. The jurors are: C. M. Goss, John McDaniel, John Auld, C. F. Barker, E. F. Walker, W. H. Bonnett, Davis Murphy, Thomas Riley, Thomas Frasier, David Kellifer, John O'Connor, and John D. O'Connell. But one, John Auld, is a resident of the city. At 10:30 o'clock an adjournment was taken till 2 o'clock, at which time the jury was sworn. Statements of counsel were taken and occupied the afternoon.

The Young Foe is "Inclined."

WASHINGTON CITY, March 23.—John G. Fair, the son of the ex-convict from Nevada, is the second son of a senator who has been prosecuted for an attempt to kill within a comparatively short time. Young Fair had trouble with a young Virginia named John D. Harrison, and the latter got badly used up. He instituted suit against Fair for $20,000 damages Thursday for an assault with intent to kill.

cor, president of the British-American Claims agency, who has been on trial for defrauding the British-American Claims agency, was acquitted Thursday on technical defects in the indictment. Recorder Smyth instructed the jury that there was no alternative but to render a verdict of not guilty.

The Casual Jury Difficulty.

Monroe, Ill., March 23.—But little progress was made Thursday in the trial of Schwartz and Watt for the murder of 23-year-old Jacob. Only six jurors have been accepted, and the lawyers have exhausted the regular panel, the first special panel of sixty and twenty out of the second fifty.

An Embroider's Trial Set.

Montgomery, Ala., March 23.—The trial of Joe Vincent, the defendant captured ex data treasurer, was set Thursday for the 11th proximo. Attorney General of State McClellan will assist in the prosecution, which the governor says will be vigorous.

ADVENTUROUS MAIDENS.

One of Them Tells an Interesting Story of Love and Misadventure.

St. Paul, Minn., March 23.—Two young girls from Rochester, N. Y., recently discovered in male attire at Windom, Minn., have been brought here and taken in charge by the local police. The younger one makes the following statement: "My name is Lillie Davey, and her name is Katie. We are sisters, and our home is in Rochester, N. Y. We left there some time ago and came to the city of St. Paul. Before we came here we had a very bad quarrel with our father. He was very angry with us and we decided to run away. We had a very bad quarrel with our father. He was very angry with us and we decided to run away. We had a very bad quarrel with our father. He was very angry with us and we decided to run away."

Wisconsin Statehood Hard at Work.

MADISON, Wis., March 23.—The senate Thursday adopted the resolution to amend the constitution by raising the minimum school age from 4 to 6 years. Assembly bills were introduced in prohibiting objections from being held in saloons; refusing to allow gambling or liquor selling on grounds, and making it a misdemeanor for manufacturers not to stamp grade on all cheese sold by them. In the assembly a senate memorial concerning the prohibition of the restriction of railway stock; of foreign, defective, vicious and dependent classes were introduced. In the senate bills were introduced in making criminal knowledge of a girl under 14 years of age punishable by life imprisonment; prohibiting municipal subscription to railway stock; severely punishing or exhibiting for permitting common obscene or village boards to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors to any man who has been arrested for drunkenness.

Michigan "Age of Consent."

LANSING, Mich., March 23.—The "age of consent" bill was passed by the assembly Thursday. The age is fixed at 14 years. The friends of capital punishment tried to pass the bill providing hanging as the punishment when the jury shall so recommend, and imprisonment for life otherwise for murder, or any other female under 14 years old. The bill failed by only one vote, which was reconsidered. The senate passed the bill yesterday. The senate passed the bill yesterday. The senate passed the bill yesterday.

Death of Ellen Weatherday.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Ellen Weatherday-Goodwin is dead. At 9:45 o'clock Thursday night she expired in the presence of her husband, the comedian, Nat G. Goodwin, Jr., at their residence at the Tenthman hotel, 215 Seventh street and Broadway. Mrs. Goodwin had been in failing health for several years. Dr. Sims performed an ovarian operation at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, assisted by Drs. Robinson and Treat. The operation occupied two hours, and the patient was unable to recover from the effects, and died without regaining consciousness.

The Louisiana Loan.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 23.—The state officers Thursday considered the proposition for a state loan of $300,000 at 3-10 per cent, as announced last week by the Indiana National Bank, which is the loan at 3 per cent. New York offered the loan at 3 per cent. and Coffin & Stanton, also of New York, who made the first proposition, followed the Moller proposition, Thursday, to take the loan at 2 1/2. All propositions were rejected Thursday evening, and it was decided to advertise the loan.

Sir John MacDonald's Prospects.

MONTREAL, March 23.—A sensation has been caused here by the receipt of a cablegram from London announcing that Sir John MacDonald, premier of Canada, is to resign and go to England as Canadian high commissioner, and that he will then be elevated to the peerage and return governor general to succeed Lord Lansdowne. The report is generally believed here.

St. Louis Clothing Store.

St. Louis, March 23.—Several attempts being made against Horwitz & Co., clothing, 1 South Fourth street, resulted in their making a general assignment Thursday morning for the benefit of their creditors. The stock is valued at $25,000; attachments filed against the store for $18,000. Bonhart & Constantine's—Barbara Constantine filed a petition in the United States circuit court Thursday demanding $100,000 from Whiteley, Butler & Kelly, of Springfield. Her father was a shareholder in the Whiteley corporation, and transferred to her twenty shares at $500 each about Nov. 1, 1892, but she claims that instead of receiving these shares on the books in her name the defendants appropriated the same to their own use. Hence the suit.

Receiver's Certificate a First Lien.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 23.—Judge Valentine, in the United States circuit court, Wednesday, in the case of the Central National bank, of Boston, against the New York, Rutland & Montreal railroad company, decided that the receiver's certificate issued by the bankruptcy court of the United States for $200,000 is a first lien upon the property. A decree was ordered for the sale of the road to pay the certificates.

Canadian Finances in Bad Shape.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 23.—The report of the finance minister of Canada has been published, but will not be made public until April 25. The Canadian finances are shown by Sir Charles Tupper, the present minister, to be in a bad shape. The public debt is $100,000,000, an increase of over $5,000,000 over the last fiscal year. Of the outstanding bonds it is estimated that Canadians hold $20,000,000, United States, $55,000,000; England, $100,000,000; Germany, $100,000,000; and France $10,000,000. A strong movement is being made by Sir Charles Tupper to have the report published, as the report when presented to parliament, as the Liberals have all along contended that Hon. William McMillan, who was finance minister for the past two years was incompetent.

Virginia's State Debt.

RICHMOND, Va., March 23.—Governor Lee Thursday received a cablegram from the chairman of the committee of foreign bondholders stating that a commission would be sent to Virginia to confer with representatives of the state with a view to reaching a settlement of the debt provided assurance is given by the legislature that the state will meet any agreement with bondholders. Immediately upon receipt the governor sent copies of the cablegram to both houses of the general assembly.

Hon. R. A. Patterson Nominated For Municipal Judge

A Roomful of Noise, Euthanasism and Good Feeling.

REPUBLICANS UNITED.

W. T. Vaukirik called the republican judicial convention to order this afternoon at the court house. R. T. Pamber was elected chairman and B. F. Danwidio, secretary.

Daniel Johnson offered a resolution that the convention select the best man possible, regardless of his previous political opinions. He said that one of the worst evils of our judicial system was the partisan spirit that was fostered. The resolution was put to a vote and lost.

J. P. Towse, of Fulton; W. T. Vaukirik, of Janesville; Daniel Johnson, of Union; J. A. Ames, of Clinton, and J. B. Dow, of Beloit were appointed a committee on credentials. Their report showed one hundred and nineteen delegates to be in attendance.

It was decided that where only a part of the delegates from any town were present the others should be empowered to cast the full vote.

The chair appointed William Rager, of this city, Cham Ingersoll, of Beloit; W. W. Clarke, of Milton, and E. L. Farnley, of Center, tellers.

William Rager put in nomination L. F. Patten, the present incumbent of the judicial chair, as one who had given good service and deserved a re-election.

B. F. Danwidio proposed the name of the Hon. H. A. Patterson. His speech was interrupted several times by applause.

There were no speeches after Mr. Danwidio's, and the convention proceeded to an informal ballot. The various candidates received:

L. F. Patten..... 28
H. A. Patterson..... 19
J. B. Dow..... 19
J. P. Towse..... 19

Total..... 85

There was a formal ballot taken but it was evident that some one had voted twice. A count showed that Mr. Patterson had received seventy votes, District Attorney Malcom, twenty-seven, L. F. Patten, eighteen, and Wilson Lane, five.

A motion was made to declare Mr. Patterson nominated by acclamation and was carried with enthusiasm.

Mr. Patterson was called for and spoke feelingly of the honor that had been conferred upon him. He elected he should use his best endeavors to give satisfaction.

—Said the linoman who has been shortening the electric light circuits: "I don't see why they strung so much wire in the first place. Its worth seven cents a pound when its down and not a cent when its up. We have more lights now than we ever had and I've taken off enough wire already to pay my wages for two weeks."

—Next week work will be commenced in Forest Park. Graeley, Carlson & Co., the most prominent landscape architects in Chicago will have entire charge. An effort will be made to open the main avenue of the park through to Main street. The alley that now exists might be widened very easily and would add greatly to the value of property on both sides.

—The funeral of the late John Abbott was held at St. Mary's church this morning at ten o'clock. The attendance of sympathizing friends was quite large. The Rev. Father Roche spoke words of comfort and consolation to the bereaved family and friends. At the conclusion of the solemn service at the church the remains were taken to the Catholic cemetery for interment.

COILING EVENTS.

—W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A. R. assemble in regular semi-monthly session this evening at Post headquarters.

—The National Union assemble in regular semi-monthly session this evening. Lodge room in the Judd block North Main street.

—Second quarterly meeting service in the First Methodist church. Preaching to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

—People's Lodge No. 400, Independent Order of Good Templars, assemble in regular weekly session this evening. Lodge room in the Court Street M. E. church block.

—The Court street Literary Club will entertain their friends at the church parlors this evening. A programme of much interest will be presented. Tickets, ten and fifteen cents.

—Chautauque Circle Monday evening, March 23. At roll call, quotations from pastoral poetry. The last half of the questions in the March Chautauque; question on Astronomy and on French Literature.

W. T. Vaukirik called the republican judicial convention to order this afternoon at the court house. R. T. Pamber was elected chairman and B. F. Danwidio, secretary.

Daniel Johnson offered a resolution that the convention select the best man possible, regardless of his previous political opinions. He said that one of the worst evils of our judicial system was the partisan spirit that was fostered. The resolution was put to a vote and lost.

J. P. Towse, of Fulton; W. T. Vaukirik, of Janesville; Daniel Johnson, of Union; J. A. Ames, of Clinton, and J. B. Dow, of Beloit were appointed a committee on credentials. Their report showed one hundred and nineteen delegates to be in attendance.

It was decided that where only a part of the delegates from any town were present the others should be empowered to cast the full vote.

The chair appointed William Rager, of this city, Cham Ingersoll, of Beloit; W. W. Clarke, of Milton, and E. L. Farnley, of Center, tellers.

William Rager put in nomination L. F. Patten, the present incumbent of the judicial chair, as one who had given good service and deserved a re-election.
